

ADT Education Solutions

The best teacher is experience

Building on the experience we've gained as the leading name in the security field for over 130 years, ADT currently helps protect thousands of schools around the country. And because of our comprehensive offerings, we've been able to do so with security solutions specifically designed for each unique situation.

ADT Always There®

ADT Security Services can help your school system:

- Improve safety for your students, faculty and staff
- Increase public confidence
- Enhance communication with police and fire departments
- Reduce expenditures on security incidents or disturbances
- Deter vandalism, trespassing and graffiti

Our experts have done their homework

Patrick Fiel, ADT's Public Safety Advisor for Education, brings more than 30 years of security experience to ADT. He has directly managed several school security and law enforcement organizations, including overseeing 163 school campuses and protecting more than 70,000 students and 8,000 employees in the D.C. Capital area. His efforts have resulted in reduced crime and a safer, more cost-effective school security program. Now, with the resources of ADT behind him, he's looking forward to helping your school achieve these same kinds of results.
